INTERNATIONAL PEACE DAY • SUNDAY, SEPTEMBER 21, 11:00 AM - 4:00 PM

This International Peace Day, join Sonia Sanchez, poet laureate emeritus of Philadelphia and an international peace activist, as she lends her vision and hosts a joyful and transformative day for all ages.

Peace takes over the Museum's international galleries as Footprints of Peace brings together renowned performers, including T.C. Carson, Black Ice, Karma Mayet Johnson, Danny Simmons, Jr., Vinie Burrows, Jessica Care Moore, and Lady Alma. The artists are joined by the art and poetry of more than 100 Philadelphia children.

The presentation of a Peace Warriors certificate, and the unveiling of a new Peace Bench for a community location celebrate a brighter future as they mark the intentions of the day.

TICKETS: $10 per person; Access Card holders: $2 (up to 4 people); STAMP card holders, free.
Free for Penn Museum members, PennCard holders and children 5 and under.

This program, a featured event of Peace Day Philly 2014, is made possible with support by Councilwoman Jannie L. Blackwell; the Philadelphia Foundation; PECO; Haverford Square Properties; Prime Properties; and other private donors.
