

What Does Peace in the Prisons Look Like?

A dialogue with
Eddie Conway and Dominque Stevenson, co-authors of the autobiography
“Marshall Law: The Life and Times of a Baltimore Black Panther”
And co-founders of the prison mentoring program
Friend of a Friend

In honor of the International Day of Peace, American Friends Service Committee invites you for an evening of dialogue about policy, politics and programs in prison that can make a difference.

This event is free and open to the public.

Tuesday 16 September | 7 PM
Friends Center | Philadelphia

Eddie Conway and Dominque Stevenson, co-authors of the autobiography “Marshall Law: The Life and Times of a Baltimore Black Panther” and co-founders of the prison mentoring program Friend of a Friend will lead the conversation. Friend of a Friend is a prison based program that focuses on helping young men navigate violent situations and successfully re-enter the community.

American Friends Service Committee | 1501 Cherry Street | Philadelphia

Email: plems@afsc.org for more information.