PROMOTING PEACE THROUGH MUSIC

The Apple Hill String Quartet, with special guests Kinan Azmeh and Sally Pinkas

FEBRUARY 7, 2015 • 7:30PM

In the third installment in the Songs for Peace concert season, we welcome The Apple Hill String Quartet with Syrian-born clarinetist Kinan Azmeh and Israeli-born pianist Sally Pinkas. This special program entitled “Music Bridging Contemporary Cultural Divides,” is part of a project from the Apple Hill Center for Chamber Music that aims to bring together musicians from Arab (both Muslim and Christian) cultures with Israeli/Jewish and American cultures. This concert features a special performance of Traces by Emmy-nominated composer Kareem Roustom, a work developed exclusively for string quartet, clarinet, and piano. This performance celebrates Interfaith Harmony Week (February 3-9), a United Nations initiative.
