In the wake of this year's Presidential election, courage is needed to address and reduce conflict and hostility. How do we create compassion when tensions have so divided people in the public square?

This workshop, facilitated by Dialogue Institute Executive Director Rebecca Mays, will help address that question, inviting you to develop your own dialogue skills and capacity for compassion in engaging others across deep difference. We will explore basic principles and techniques of dialogue and nonviolent communication, and practice tools for dealing with polarization and prejudice in our own unique contexts.

Space is limited so be sure to reserve your spot early!
