

Interfaith
Philadelphia

Interfaith Ally Workshop

Join Interfaith Philadelphia staff and fellow community members for a workshop that provides opportunities to learn about and exercise the skills needed to intervene with family, friends, and colleagues to combat discrimination and prejudice and to build peace.

Rooted in bystander intervention techniques, this workshop focuses on how to address religiously-focused hate speech and discrimination."

Learn more at: peacedayphilly.org/events

Thursday,
September 17
5:00-7:00 pm

Anneke Kat serves as the Youth & Community Programs Manager at Interfaith Philadelphia. She holds a B.A. in International Development and Social Change and a M.A. in Community Development and Planning from Clark University, and has several years of experience working with refugee communities and youth on issues of education, economic empowerment, and employment.

Liz Royer serves as the Communications & Trainings Manager for Interfaith Philadelphia, providing leadership and support to the agency's wide array of interfaith training and workshop initiatives. She is a graduate of Haverford College and a former Quaker Voluntary Service fellow.

Questions? Contact Anneke: ak@interfaithphiladelphia.org