South Sudanese Journeys: The Long Road to a New Home

Monday, September 21, 5:00-6:30pm ET

On the International Day of Peace, join us for a program of discussion and reflection on former refugees’ experiences in the United States, Canada, and elsewhere. Former refugees from the then Southern Sudan, who were resettled in the United States in the early 2000s and beyond, will share their experiences on some of the contemporary challenges not only in the United States but also in other epicenters of refugees and displaced people, such as the Horn of Africa.

Speakers:
Rebecca Deng, Martha Ayor, Mal Tudeal and Samuel Akku, with music by K-Denk

Sponsors: The Sawa Sawa Network, Arcadia University’s International Peace and Conflict Resolution Program and Peace Day Philly
