Hosted by: United Nations Association of Greater Philadelphia

IN SUPPORT OF UN75 2020 AND BEYOND SHAPING OUR FUTURE TOGETHER

UNA·USA

African Immigrants in the City of Brotherly Love:

Embracing Diverse Experiences and Identities

The discussion will address African immigrants and asylum seekers, including issues faced by special groups.
How do we support new African Immigrants with the challenges in the United States and our communities?
Included will be considerations related to the unique experiences and challenges facing African immigrants who identify, either openly or not, as members of the LGBTQ community.
Highlights of the conversation will be shared with the United Nations.

SPEAKERS:
Peter Gonzales,
Maureen Smith,
Bruce Knotts,
Alia Adams

SATURDAY
SEPTEMBER 19
10AM-11:30AM

Register in advance for this webinar. Click here.

Moderated by Miranda Alexander

Co-Sponsored by:

PEACE DAY PHILLY personal · local · global

Caribbean Community in Philadelphia

This event has been made possible thanks to a grant from AKA Omega Omega Chapter

Coalition for Peace Action

UNITARIAN UNIVERSALIST ASSOCIATION